6 How we use the data

We may pass the name and address of a person who has died to other organisations to prevent further mail being sent. We will also pass these application details and information regarding the status of your Redirection to organisations to prevent fraud and/or money laundering. By law, we have to pass on Redirection details to The Department of Work and Pensions and Local Authorities, so they can update their records. Further information about the use of your data is also contained in the Redirection terms and conditions.

6 Your Payment

For current prices go to royalmail.com/redirection. The price of the service is based on:

Length of service you want	Where the new address is	Number of people
12 months or	UK or	For Example:
6 months or	EU or	1 individual = application fee
3 months	Rest of the World	2 individuals = application fee + x1 extra person fee
		3 individuals = application fee + x2 extra person fee
		(Fees are applicable for anyone over the age of 16)

7 What you are agreeing to

*Signature of the person applying for the Redirection:

Signature

If you (the person applying for the Redirection) do not sign the form we cannot process your application.

*Please mark 'X' in the appropriate box.

By signing this form you agree to the Consumer Redirection Service terms and conditions, so please read them carefully beforehand. You can find the terms and conditions at royalmail.com/redirection, where you can also find a link to our privacy policy referred to in them. To obtain a paper copy of the terms and conditions or the privacy policy, please see the leaflet accompanying this form. It is a criminal offence to redirect mail without proper authority.

How we use the data provided on this form is described in our terms and conditions. This may include using the details of everyone named on this form to help prevent fraud and money laundering and as required by law.

8 This is the identification we require

For your security, we need to verify your identity to set up your Redirection. We require different forms of identification depending on how you apply. Proof of identification must be from the items listed below; no other items are acceptable.

If you are a solicitor acting as a personal representative, we need to see an original or office/certified copy of the Grant of Probate or Grant of Letters of Administration and death certificate.

You can apply by post or at a Post Office® branch, see leaflet for details.

The person applying for the Redirection in section 3 must provide the following ID; no other items are acceptable.
